

Biography

Diann Chea is an emerging video, performance and installation artist. She has a BFA in Visual Arts and Women's Studies at York University in Toronto.

Scholarships and awards

- 2010 Ethel Armstrong Award for Undergraduate Students
- 2010 Kondor Fine Arts Award
- 2009 Jack Bush Scholarship
- 2009 Faculty of Fine Arts Dean's Prizes for Excellence
- 2009 David Gardner Wilkinson Bursary
- 2009 Ethel Armstrong Award for Undergraduate Students
- 2008 Faculty of Arts Essay Prize
- 2005-2009 Queen Elizabeth II Aiming for the Top Scholarship

Solo Shows

- 2009 'An Open Letter to the Asshole who Masturbated in Front of Me on the Subway',
Special Projects Gallery, York University, Toronto

Selected Performances

- 2009 'Roar! I Am Oriental Rug!'
Hysteria: A Festival for Women, Buddies in Bad Times, Toronto
- 2008 'Roar! I Am Oriental Rug!'
Ladyfest Art Show, Beaver Hall Gallery, Toronto
- 2007 'go go girl power ranger!'
York University, Toronto

Selected Screenings

- 2009 'Diane Chea'
Toronto Reel Asian International Film Festival, Toronto
- 2008 'During the Day I'm An Art Student but at Night I Turn into A Small Green Frog',
Feminism is my Girlfriend in More Ways than One, Centre for Women and Trans People at York, Toronto

Group Exhibitions

- 2009 Racing Thoughts II York University Graduating Students Exhibition,
Propeller Gallery, Toronto
- 2009 Time Based Area Art Show,
Special Projects Gallery, York University, Toronto
- 2008 Time Based Area Art Show,
Special Projects Gallery, York University, Toronto